

K mart Karolers' repertoire and talent just keep on growing

Heidi Flynn Jelasic, financial reporting and her K mart Karolers treated KIHers to their favorite holiday tunes for the third year in a row this past holiday season.

Out of a group of 23, 11 singers soloed. Belinda Buck, transportation, was one soloist with a different twist to her performance of "Nuttin' for Christmas." It's the woes of a little girl who's been very bad for the past year and is certain that she is getting "nuttin'" for Christmas. Belinda was replete with a pinafore and her Christmas list, not to mention the demure that accompanied the outfit.

Joyce Smith, records, sang a duet with Heidi along with solo parts in "O Holy Night" and "Silent Night."

Mary Abbott, Mr. Dewar's office, again accompanied the group on piano while Heidi directed.

Other soloists included Karen Turovaara, advertising accounting, "Merry Christmas, Darling;" Wendy Rick, personnel, "The Christmas Song;" Otis Brown, CSD, a wiseman in "We Three Kings;" Chuck Szalkay, maintenance, "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen;" Tim Kightlinger, invoice audit, a wiseman in "We Three Kings;" Dennis Smith, tax department, "O Holy Night," "I'll be home for Christmas" and "Panis Angelicus" as a duet; Vergie Jefferson, transportation, "White Christmas;" and Julie McKarregan, "What Child is This?"

Ribbons for the women's outfits were provided by Brenda Williams, Mr. Olson's office. General Manager Harold House supplied the piano for two weeks of practice and performing.

Also providing holiday tunes during the lunch hours were groups from Clawson High School, Kimbell High School, Sterling Heights High School, Cousino High School and Avondale High School.

A hearty thanks goes to all the groups and their tremendous efforts to share the holiday spirit with everyone at KIH.
